

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact:

Rok Jesenicnik

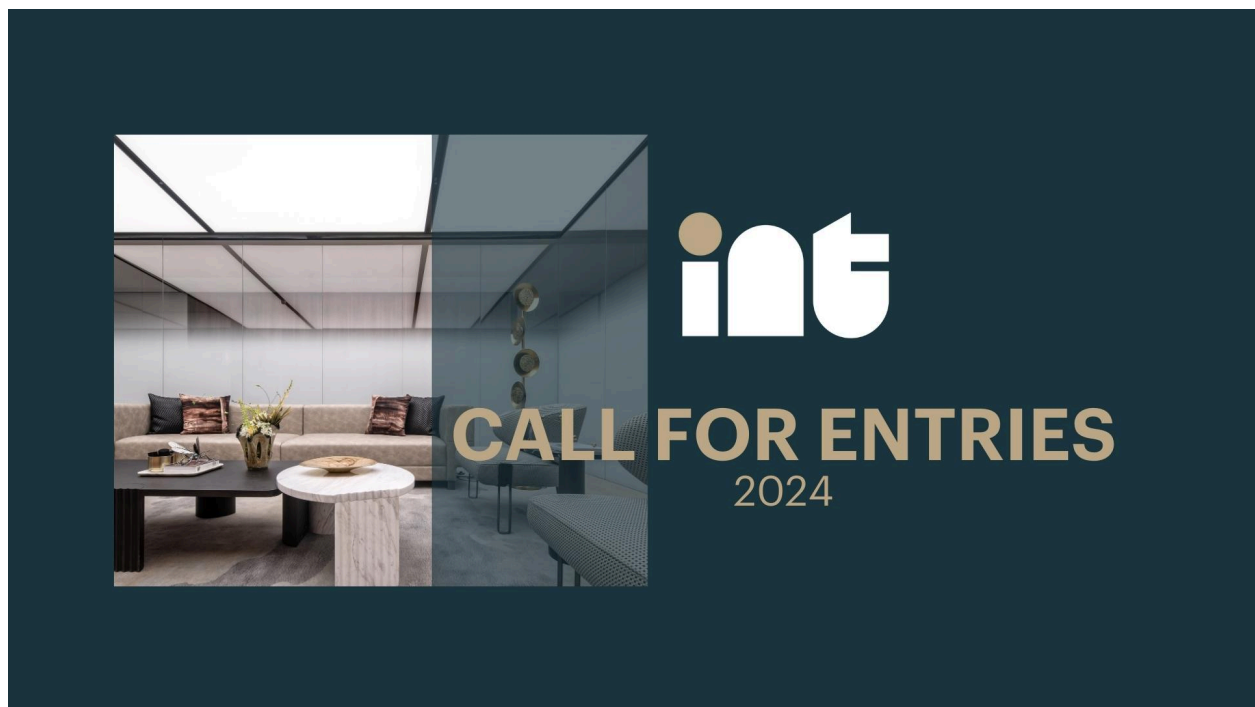

INT Marketing & Communications

INT Interior Design Awards

team@intdesignaward.com

<https://intdesignaward.com/>

INT Interior Design Awards: Celebrating the Opening of Its Second Year

Los Angeles, United States, March 21, 2024 – The INT Interior Design Awards, renowned for its commitment to promoting excellence and innovation in the design world, proudly announces the start of its second year. Building on the success of its first year, INT is set to further its mission of spotlighting the brightest talents in interior design from around the globe.

As a symbol of inclusivity and accessibility in the awards landscape, INT distinguishes itself by offering a platform where every submission is carefully reviewed by a dedicated team, ensuring compliance with the highest standards of creativity and design. Reflecting on their groundbreaking approach, the president Hossein Farmani remarked, "Our vision is to make the recognition process accessible to all, thereby removing barriers that might discourage the incredible talent hidden in our communities."

The INT Awards have quickly become a highly sought-after honor for design studios seeking global recognition, client attraction, and elevation of their brand's status.

Public Interior Design of the Year 2023: Park Repositioning by Elkus Manfredi Architects

Looking back at the successful 2023 edition, where the creative minds behind exceptional spaces were celebrated, the INT Awards are excited to unveil the next chapter. The 2023 INT winners set a high bar, showcasing designs that merge beauty with practicality, artistry with sophistication, and ultimately transform spaces into havens that positively influence our well-being and lifestyles.

Residential Interior Design of the Year 2023: La Casa de la Abuela by Chain + Siman

CALL FOR ENTRIES: INT Interior Design Awards 2024

INT now invites interior designers worldwide to seize this unmatched opportunity, no matter if you are an emerging talent or an established studio, the INT Awards are your platform to shine on the global stage, showcasing your creativity and innovation to an international audience.

Submit your projects and let the INT Interior Design Awards be your gateway to elevating your global exposure, acclaim, and impact in the world of interior design.

Key Submission Dates:

- Extended Early Bird Deadline: March 31, 2024
- Regular Deadline: May 5, 2024
- Final Submission Deadline: May 31, 2024

For submission guidelines, and more information about the INT Interior Design Awards, visit their official website.

Commercial Interior Design of the Year 2023: Am Hof 8 by T.O. Interior Design

About INT Interior Design Awards

Founded by the creators of the esteemed Architecture MasterPrize (AMP), the INT Interior Design Awards aspires to be the most respected, inclusive, and accessible global award platform in the interior design industry. It aims to celebrate and give international recognition to the works that push boundaries, redefine standards, and have a positive impact on our living environments.

For media inquiries or more information about INT, submissions, deadlines, winners, please contact:

Media Contact:

Rok Jesenicnik

INT Marketing & Communications

INT Interior Design Awards

team@intdesignaward.com

<https://intdesignaward.com/>