PRO CARTON PACKAGING FOR A BETTER WORLD

The Pro Carton Young Designers Award is one of Europe's leading annual young talent competitions for packaging design and it plays a pioneering role in promoting sustainability as it focuses exclusively on cartonboard design!

Submissions are now open until May 17th 2018

All winners, finalists and each of their lecturers will be invited to the Gala Awards dinner and award ceremony at the European Carton Makers Association (ECMA) Congress in September 2018 in Riga/Latvia. The European folding carton industry will meet for this net-working event of the year!

All expenses will be covered by Pro Carton: Travel costs, 2 nights in a luxury hotel, the elegant Award Gala and even a budget for night out in Riga!

The main prize for category winners is a visit to the Metsä Board Mill in Finland plus a practical training at the international carton producer Mayr-Melnhof Packaging in Austria. All expenses paid!

There will also be an online voting with the best shortlisted designs of 2018 where every designer and every voter has the chance to win the latest iPad Air!

Start right away with your project for the #pcyda18!
